Sishya

Nutana is a class 7 student of Sri Sankara Senior Secondary School, Adyar.

She started learning Bharatanatyam from her mother Vidya at the tender age of 3. On Guru Sri Mathioli Saraswathy Amma's guidance, Nutana joined Bharathanjali, the dance school established by Acharya Choodamani Smt. Anitha Guha, and has been under the tutelage of her guru for the past 6 years.

She had the fortune of doing Little Krishna in many of Bharatanjali's productions from her childhood.

Nutana has won the first place in Dance competitions such as Hidden Idol classical dance quest 2016, Thejas Balanatyotsav 2016.

In 2013, when she was 7 years old, Nandalala Seva Samithi trust awarded her with 'PARIJATHAM' award for the best upcoming Bharatnatyam dancer.

She had the privilege of performing in Guru Zakir Hussain's 'CINDERELLA'.

She is a voracious reader and has a natural flair for writing poems and story telling. She also has an excellent academic record. She seeks the blessings of the Almighty and her Guru for her Arangetram.

We are honoured and privileged to acknowledge other faculty members of Bharathanjali in training Nutana, especially for this Arangetram.

Mrs. Jayashree Ramanathan, Ms. Medha Hari , Ms. Janane Sethunarayanan , Ms. Sathvikaa Shankar.

Sathvikaa had taken great effort in training and polishing Nutana's skills through skype classes when Nutana was in Trivandrum for two years. She has been a great inspiration for Nutana.

We also thank Bharathanjali's faculty Sri P.R.Venkatasubramanian for composing a new Thillana specially for Nutana.
